

The Hatch Opens

Gory Blister

Into the void
A Species of ghost Shapeless and black moves

no breath, emptiness trickling through nowhere

Deep, endless night
No life, no death

Light, evil rays, upon reality
a blaze of psychotic agony

The Hatch Opens now
The Hatch Opens wide
darkness fades away

A blinded realm Coils down inside the centre of warm rays

no more, endlessness crawling through nowhere

Soil creation
Substance has formed Chaos infection
Planets shooting everywhere

Hell leads the night
from life to death

Light, evil rays, upon reality
a blaze of psychotic agony

The Hatch Opens now
The Hatch Opens wide
Paradise is lost

Lightfall - burning red
The dawn of forms and the living colours

Deathfall - blowing red Nightcreatures die out

Downfall - flowing red
The chasm fades

Wind blows
Increasing the fury of the conflagration
A maelstrom of flaming waves Consuming the abyss of eternity (2x)
The hatch opens now
