

The Shining Hades

Gory Blister

lampstands beside the gate open wide unto a deep rough furnace glowing with fury flames, flames, incense and embers tongues of fire ascending red clouds protecting a hideous creature coiled, shaped like worm viperùs voracious forked jaws spitting horror and rage

mother of all dead!
If I close my eyes
I can feel Death rising inside
Thy kingdom come, the shining Hades!

Locusts from the smoke arise
To bring torment and pain

Venom drops from their tails stings pierce and burn my plagued flesh Blood, flowing down the viperùs voracious forked jaws
spitting horror and rage

mother of all dead!
If I close my eyes
I can feel Death rising inside
Thy kingdom come, the shining Hades!

...back to the reign of emptiness...

Abyss full of hateful flames
Calls you the hideous beast dominates
Abyss full of hateful flames
Loves you the hideous beast arises to Shining Hades
