Resiliance

Gospel of the Horns

The awareness, the drive of the mind Possessed and self driven A silence benign

Ride the winds of fate... A burning deliverance It's never too late

The hands of the maker
The hands of the true
What pleasures I feel, a thunderous image of doom
Ripped to pieces
An image sold through time
It's a fight it's a fight
But we are the first ones in line

Come on... taste blood

RESILIANT TO THE CORE...
