Ring Of Souls

Gothic Knights

Soaring through the darkness
 I ride on the wings of evil
 I see the world below me
 My magic is growing stronger within me

 I bring forth the power of the ring
 Red diamonds burn unholy
 My soul tears into the sky
 I wear the ring of souls

 I raise my fists with glory
 To show the world my fury
 My spirit is lifted
 To the souls of the ancients

 I bring forth the power of the ring
 Red diamonds burn unholy
 The heavens open up around me
 Dark magic now unfolds

 Summoning the spirits from the dark world
 Crossing the bridges of time
 Creatures from the netherworlds
 Under my command for all to see

 The ring has mighty power
 Its radiance consumes me
 Bringing the heavens together
 Lost souls run free forever

 I bring forth the power of the ring
 Red diamonds burn unholy
 My soul tears into the sky
 I wear the ring of souls
