

Someone Is After Me

Gothminister

Half awake, I cannot sleep
I'm longing now to rest
Inside my own realm of d reams

Then of ugly skin and bones he suddenly appears
A tall shadow growing out of green mist

I am scared and I can't breathe
Can't they leave me be

Don't you know
That someone is after me
The bringers of pain
They drive me insane
Oh, why don't you know
That someone is after me
They're inside my head
And they try to break me
Once again

I,
The creature they all fear,
Makes children disappear
This will be a long and frightening year
A daunting bell is heard
I close my eyes and turn
I draw the curtains and kill the lights
"Orphaned child
You little creep
Say your prayers
And we'll make you sleep"
I am scared cause I can't see where they're taking me
I just wanna wake up
I don't wanna drown, I don't wanna drown
