All I Care For

Another day before us and we're ready for the show across the land of mystery everyone with their own dream sometimes harder than they seam

Here I am far away hundred miles and oceans from you feel the need to cry out loud I want you to know

oh, you're all I care for oh, you're all I care for you're all I need

Soon I will be back again I know, it's hard to love a kind of man always on the line always out of time just one thin I know for sure

oh, you're all I care for oh, you're all I care for oh, you're all I care for you're all I need Gotthard
