

Coming Your Way

Gotthard

Take it all the way, the way you wanna see it
Filling up the world with words without a meaning
Just another chink, the chink is now revealing
I think it's coming your way
Stick and stone thrown, a fire we can see through
I can take a guess but I ain't gonna bet on you
The signs are clear, it's clear it doesn't touch you
I think it's coming your way
Yeah, it's coming
I think it's coming your way
You know it's coming
The storm is coming your way
Take it all away, away with all the lying Way to many known unknowns among the crying
A time bomb, the pressure's at the ceiling
I think it's coming your way
Word is on the street, the beat is getting closer
They don't have a name, the beast is on the poster
Just feel the heat, the oil is boiling over
I think it's coming your way
Yeah, it's coming
I think it's coming your way
You know it's coming
The storm is coming your way
Burning on your back, it's back and sticking on you
I can take a guess but you ain't gonna make it through Who's gonna feed the need, I know it ain't you
The storm is coming your way
Yeah, it's coming
I think it's coming your way
You know it's coming
I think it's coming your way
I think it's coming your way
The storm is coming
You know it's coming your way
