

Not Fooling Anyone

Gotthard

Sometimes it's been a lonely road
And I can't think about tomorrow
And I must admit, I feel the cold within
Frozen roses in the wind
Maybe your heart 'll go my way
Something I can't steal or borrow
And I feel as though I'm blinded by the sun
Guess it's better than the rain
I can be somebody else
I can say it to myself
I can say that we are one
Say we'll never come undone
But I'm not fooling anyone
I know that time is moving on
And I'm not so good at lying
With every falling leaf, a question in my mind
Could I leave it all behind
I can be somebody else
I can say it to myself
I can say that we are one
Say we'll never come undone
But I'm not fooling anyone
I can hide the way I feel
In my chest a heart of steel
(I can't pretend... I can't pretend)
In my chest a heart of steel
(I can't pretend... I can't pretend)
No, I'm not fooling anyone
I can be somebody else
I can say it to myself
I can say that we are one
Say we'll never come undone
But I'm not fooling anyone
No, I'm not fooling anyone
