

Reason to Live

Gotthard

Here I stand, and I don't know why
Why should I wait, when I'm ready to fly
I had that feeling, right from the start
That I've been shot, straight into my heart

But I can't stand to walk by myself
Down the rocky road of my life
This precious time is ticking away
And I'll do anything if I can make you mine, baby...

You are the reason I live
When the sun goes down
We dive in the night, baby...
You are the reason I give
Give you all of my heart
Instead of my pride, instead of my pride

I see your face everywhere I go
I hear your voice in the wind that blows
Sometimes I wonder am I losing ground
But I know good lovin' is so hard to be found
But I can't stand to walk by myself
Down the rocky road of my life
This precious time is ticking away
And I'll do anything if I can make you mine, baby...

You are the reason I live
When the sun goes down
We dive in the night, baby
You are the reason I give
Give you all of my heart
Instead of my pride

You are the reason I live
When the sun goes down
We dive in the night, baby
You are the reason I give
Give you all of my heart
Instead of my pride
