Reason to Live

Here I stand, and I dont know why Why should I wait, when I'm ready to fly I had that feeling, right from the start That I've been shot, straight into my heart

But I can't stand to walk by myself Down the rocky road of my life This precious time is ticking away An' I'll do anything if I can make you mine, baby...

You are the reason I live When the sun goes down We dive in the night, baby... You are the reason I give Give you all of my heart Instead of my pride, instead of my pride

I see your face everywhere i go I hear your voice in the wind that blows Sometimes I wonder am I loosin' ground But I know good lovin' is so hard to be found But I can't stand to walk by myself Down the rocky road of my life This precious time is ticking away An' I'll do anything if i can make you mine, baby...

You are the reason I live When the sun goes down We dive in the night, baby You are the reason I give Give you all of my heart Instead of my pride

You are the reason I live When the sun goes down We dive in the night, baby You are the reason i give Give you all of my heart Instead of my pride
