

Red On A Sleeve

Gotthard

Somewhere in the distance, somewhere in the dark
Wrong side of a right place, there's a hole in a heart
Real face of the night side, and the cracks in the wall
One way on a down ride and its running out of fall

Somewhere in a back street
In a fall out of grace
Somewhere there's a heartbeat
With a name and a face

Red on a sleeve, hidden beneath now
Would you believe all that can be allowed?
Red on a sleeve

Down, down and hiding, with the light comes the shame
Downpour it's crying, all the rivers and the rain
More power than thunder, sting more than a bite
It's coming from under, it's the truth of the night

Somewhere in a back street
In a fall out of grace
Somewhere there's a heartbeat
With name and a face

Red on a sleeve, hidden beneath now
Would you believe all that can be allowed?
Red on a sleeve
Red on a sleeve

Somewhere in a back street
In a fall out of grace
Somewhere there's a heartbeat
a name and a face

Red on a sleeve, hidden beneath now
Would you believe all that can be allowed?
Red on a sleeve
Red on a sleeve
