

Tears to Cry

Gotthard

I can't live without
I still can feel your arms around me
And time cannot erase

Since you went away
I couldn't find a way to help me through
All the colours turn to blue

But you never gave me time to say I'm sorry
And you know that's so true
So true

You will never know how much I could love you
Cuz you let me down without a reason why
Let me tell you now, my love will surround you
Even after I run out of tears to cry

We could've found a way
It ended on a bridge to nowhere
And now it's hard to let you go

Dancing memories
They ask me who was wrong or right
They won't let me sleep at night

And our different worlds, so often got between us
It's all yesterday's rain
I have tried to stop in vain

You will never know how much I could love you
Cuz you let me down without a reason why
Let me tell you now, my love will surround you

Even after you turn loose and free to fly

You will never know how much I could love you
Cuz you let me down without a reason why
Let me tell you now, my love will surround you
Even after I run out of tears to cry
