

Unconditional Faith

Gotthard

I have often dreamed about "escaped reality"
See me riding on the clouds of mystery
With a suitcase full of hope and one of wasted time
Hear me knocking on the gates of destiny

Take me where believe is free to fly
Cuz I'm willing to try
Take me where my thoughts don't need to hide,
Unconditional faith

I have walked across the bridges of insanity
Struggled for my balance on the globe
And the deeper I keep diggin' oh, to know myself
The more I realize the truth within

Take me where believe is free to fly
Cuz I'm willing to try
Take me where my thoughts don't need to hide,
Unconditional faith, yeah

Once you open that door
There'll be no turning back
All your inner fears will be floating away
Like an innocent dream
Unconditional faith, yeeeahh

I've stepped outside the darkness of eternity
I opened up my mind and I can see
And I'm looking for a star that guides me through the night
A road that leads me nowhere's not for me

Take me where believe is free to fly
Cuz I'm willing to try
Take me where my thoughts don't need to hide,
Unconditional faith, yeah

Take me where believe is free to fly
Cuz I'm willing to try
Take me where my thoughts don't need to hide,
Unconditional faith, yeah
