

Loath to Refuse

Gotye

If you don't want me now
Then you can't have me later
'Cause I won't wait for you
So don't expect me to

If you won't love me now
Then we'll be nothing after
So you had better stay
Lest I take my love away

You don't want to lose me
But you're loath to refuse me
And I know that you'll always choose me
Over anybody else

If you won't leave me now
You won't see me later
Leave me on my own
I need to be alone now

And though you want me now
You can wait 'till after
'Cause patience is a virtue my love
The question is 'do you have enough'?
