

Silent Scream

Gov't Mule

Hey, what's the use, daily excuse
And what's it all mean to me
Pride pushed aside, thanks for the ride
More is in store, you'll see

Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream

Life's worth the price, don't you think twice
Just 'cause it's unjust to you
Why not rejoice, what's the other choice
When death, like your dreams, will come soon

Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream

Search for the truth, no one has proof
But faith is all you need to believe

Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
