

Day Of Reckoning

Government Issue

Take a last look, the world's about to fall
Your efforts are useless, to move a brick wall
You didn't seem to listen to a thing I said
You think that today will become your day

Open your eyes, to hich way to take
Reagan will laugh, as your resistance he breaks
Butchers and cowards, they're all running your life
This day is for reckoning if you wish to survive

Alright!

Open your eyes, to which way to take
Reagan will laugh, as your resistance he breaks
Please be strong, stretch your arms out at length
He'll dance on your grave, deprive all your strength

Yeah!
