

Flew in from London
Only to shop 7th Avenue
They got what she wants
You just don't get it over there
Oh, she's so attractive
She'll do anything to stay that way
Money's no object
To make a boy stop and stare

High fashion model magazines
Runways of ageless beauty queens
Everything for the girl next door
Manhattan styles, Parisian look
Lipstick and cheekbones by the book
She'll never leave you wanting more

Oh, she looks so Cosmo
Her eyes can talk to a camera
No imperfection protecting every man's dream
Ooh, she'll hypnotize you
Right from her hair to her fingernails
In shadows and highlights
She'll make you burst at the seams
