

Coffee

Grace

Kinda hot in the kitchen, yeah
My cup is already half full
It's the taste that I'm feeling
No milk and two sugar if that's cool

Can't sleep when it's late
But that ain't a complain
And nobody can keep it like you (Oh, oh)
So good, I can taste it
But you're gone, I crave it
Nobody can make it like you (Oh, oh)
By the time you're leaving (yeah)
I'm begging you to stay (yeah yeah)
And if you leave, I'd only get it in your way
You can keep me needing
Even when I am awake
But the coffee never tastes the same, yeah

My babe, my baby
My babe, my baby
I drink so much, I guess they call it love
My babe, my baby
My babe, my baby
You keep me up, I just can't get enough

It's 3 AM in the morning
And never been so lonely
I just wanna wake up to you (you)
And you could be that, you could be the one that I'm needing Honey, just let them be your

Can't sleep when it's late
But that ain't a complain
And nobody can keep it like you (Oh, oh)
So good, I can taste it
But you're gone, I crave it
Nobody can make it like you (Oh, oh)
By the time you're leaving (yeah)
I'm begging you to stay (yeah yeah)
And if you leave, I'd only get it in your way
You can keep me needing
Even when I am awake
But the coffee never tastes the same, yeah

My babe, my baby
My babe, my baby
I drink so much, I guess they call it love
My babe, my baby
My babe, my baby
You keep me up, I just can't get enough

Oh my suger-sweet, I wanted to say
I really really need you to stay
You're my sugar-sweet, I wanted to say
You're the only way to start my day

(Oh oh oh)

My babe, my baby
My babe, my baby
I drink so much, I guess they call it love
My babe, my baby
My babe, my baby
You keep me up, I just can't get enough

My babe, my baby
My babe, my baby
I drink so much, I guess they call it love
My babe, my baby
My babe, my baby
You keep me up, I just can't get enough
