

The Honey

Grace

Uh, it's a game
Honey it's a pity
And I'm a good girl
But even angels gotta cry sometimes
Honey they gotta cry
They gotta cry sometimes
Oh, baby
They gotta cry sometimes
Oh, baby

You're just what I need now
Oh, this ain't funny
Honey he ain't sweet but he might be the honey I need now
Oh, this ain't funny
He seems might be the honey I need now
Please now, got me on my knees, I can't breathe
You're the honey I need now
This ain't funny
Oh, he seems might be the honey I need now

You you you got what you give
So keep on giving what you get
Call it what you like, but that is not what say what it is
I, I'm a slave for you, I check my lashes in the whip
And I know you like me, I've been tryin' let it slip
You're so Mr. Pop , you got great for nothing
Everything's good when you poppin' up,
Me and you, gon' stoppin' us
Love is what we handle this, I need to get a grip
Said I'm thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' 'bout you
It's the trick

Uh, it's a game
Honey it's a pity
And I'm a good girl
But even angels gotta cry sometimes
Honey they gotta cry
They gotta cry sometimes
Oh, baby
They gotta cry sometimes
Oh, baby

You're just what I need now
Oh, this ain't funny
Honey he ain't sweet but he might be the honey I need now
Oh, this ain't funny
He seems might be the honey I need now
Please now, got me on my knees, I can't breathe
You're the honey I need now
This ain't funny
Oh, he seems might be the honey I need now

You're like super-social on the Gramma, got me jello
Only rocks as Louie, Christian, P and Donattella
I usually like it simple, but the compliments just make it complicated yeah and your confidence is far from understated
They say you're no good for me, but they can't tell me nothing

No no, no they can't tell me nothing
You only gonna go and break my heart, I take the risk
Said I'm thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' 'bout you
It's the trick

Uh, it's a game
Honey it's a pity
And I'm a good girl
But even angels gotta cry sometimes
Honey they gotta cry
They gotta cry sometimes
Oh, baby
They gotta cry sometimes
Oh, baby

You're just what I need now
Oh, this ain't funny
Honey he ain't sweet but he might be the honey I need now
Oh, this ain't funny
He seems might be the honey I need now
Please now, got me on my knees, I can't breathe
You're the honey I need now
This ain't funny
Oh, he seems might be the honey I need now
This ain't funny, oh
He ain't sweet, but he might be the honey I need now
This ain't funny
Oh, he seems might be the honey I need now
Please now, got me on my knees, I can't breathe
You're the honey I need now
This ain't funny,
Oh, he seems might be the honey
Oh, he seems might be the honey
Oh baby, oh oh
