

This Time

Graham Colton

She will let you in
She'll be waiting around
Then she'll push you in
And watch you drown

Love her better as you go ahead and let her in been here before
but I'm not coming 'round again

How can you turn a blind eye when I'm screaming
I want you to hear me, this time.
Turn around take a good look now 'cause I'm leaving
I want you to hear me, I'll be fine.

She will rush you in
Then she'll slowly back out
And when you're suffering
She'll push you down

Love her better as you go and let her in
Been here before
But I'm not coming 'round again

How can you turn a blind eye while I'm screaming
I want you to hear me, this time.
Turn around take a good look now 'cause I'm leaving
I want you to hear me, I'll be fine.

You never had time to get away
The reasons why all the things you say
When the moments not right
You never had time for different ways
You're wondering why you're still the same
As you break down and cry

ooooooooh oooooooooh oooooooooh oooooooooh

How can you turn a blind eye while I'm screaming
I want you to hear me, this time.
Turn around take a good look now cause I'm leaving
I want you to hear me, I'mmm be fine

She will let you in,
She'll be waiting around
