

Look Into The Light

Graham Coxon

Look into the light
Fills you completely
Look into the light
Reflects you so sweetly
Now that the nights completely out of sight

Look into the light
Fills you completely
Look into the light
Reflects you so briefly
Large as your eyes the deepness of the night

Look into the light
Fills you completely
Look into the light
Reflects you so sweetly
Now that the nights completely out of sight
