

The Fear

Graham Coxon

I ain't had no kicks for what seems such a long time
I ain't had no peace for what seems such a long time
I ain't had no kicks for what seems such a long time
I ain't had no peace for what seems such a long time
The fear of being alone
The fear, the fear, the fear
The fear of being alone

I ain't had no sleep for what seems such a long time
I ain't had no hope for what seems such a long time
I ain't had no sleep for what seems such a long time
I ain't had no hope for what seems such a long time

The fear of being alone
The fear, the fear, the fear
The fear of being alone

You can never really run without remaining the same
The truth you carry with you is the gas for the flame

The fear of being alone
The fear, the fear, the fear
The fear of being alone
