

Tired

Graham Coxon

Whenever I feel tired
I know that I'm not
'Cause when I feel tired
You give it all that you got

And when I feel sad
You open my eyes
And make me see inside
And the outside is never as bad

Whenever I feel tired
I know you'll wake me up
And every time you cry
I put on my shirt and get up

'Cause when I feel sad
You open my eyes
And make me see inside
And the outside is never as bad
