

Nothing in the World

Graham Nash

There's something coming through
For you
I can feel it in my heart
The question is, can you'

Leave the love light in your eyes
You must believe it's true
That there's nothin' in the world
I won't do for you

When you live for love and lose
And your heart is gone
That's no time for you to choose
Not to carry on, no

I know your world is full of pain
And your soul is black and blue
But there's nothin' in the world
I won't do for you

Well, I believe you know desire
But right now she don't know you
And I can see your heart's on fire
You better burn right on through

'Cause in the future you could find
That there's someone there for you, just for you
And there'll be nothin' in the world
They won't do for you
