

Always Greener

Graham Parker

She likes it in this line of work
But it doesn't matter
Whatever happens seems to work
But it doesn't matter

The grass is always greener
The grass is always greener

There's something lacking in his life
But he can't define it
Three kids two cars a house a wife
I guess that defines it

The grass is always greener
The grass is always greener

Always greener
Always greener

I know there's jackpots everywhere
A different face with different hair
I know there's cherries in a pair
So I will pull that handle
(Pull that handle) (Pull that handle)

The grass is always greener
The grass is always greener

They know there's nothing they can do
But do something other
Than stay the course and see it through
Without one another

The grass is always greener
The grass is always greener

Always greener
Always greener
Always greener
Always greener
