

Nothin's Gonna Pull Us Apart

Graham Parker

If you got a will of iron and a heart of fire
You might try to stop the world and catch your soul desire
And then nothing's gonna pull it apart
Nothing's gonna pull it apart

I heard it said to the contrary
But nothing's gonna pull it apart.

If you struggle against all odds and come up smiling true
If you give it all to me and I give it to you believe me baby
Nothing's gonna pull it apart hey hey
Nothing's gonna pull it apart.
Well I heard it said to the contrary
But nothing's gonna pull it apart.
Well 'watch your cat meow into your well'
I heard that said before
But I don't think that can last too long
No I don't think that feel too strong ooooooooooooooooooh pull it.
t.

If your spirit's broken down by the world around you
And I'll go under and I'll go down till that pearl has found you u
And then nothing's gonna pull it apart hey hey
Nothing's gonna pull it apart.
Well I heard it said to the contrary
But nothing's gonna pull it apart.
Pull it apart pull it apart yeah.
