Strong Winds Graham Parker

Graham Parker

G	G	D
Have you seer D	n her run thro	ough the wild C	things C
Dropping behi	ind her the ch	nild's things	That she'll no	o longer ne
G	G	D
Scattering li	ike seeds they	y are discard C	ed then C
D Nothing can on she bleeds	give them a l:	ife again T	hey're comfort	only when
G	G		С
And strong wi	inds are blow: G	ing through h	er hair C D
I reach out t G	to touch it bu	ıt it's not t C	here
-	are beating a	at her door	_	_
D Even with it	G locked they	come back str	C (onger than before	G ore
Somewhere ins And in the da	arkest night s	arly warning she takes a t	bell begins to	_
I reach, out	inds are blow to touch it k are beating (out it's not	there

And when she takes her place in the furniture
The crystal vase and the rocking chair The chintz and china cup s

Shaping our lives we never know what for

Then it's all reduced to a bill of sale

She disappears with the merchandise You understand that well