

Worthy Of Your Love

Graham Parker

If I had the slightest clue as to what you are and what's inside you

I would know exactly what to do and be worthy of your love

If a flower bloomed in the frozen wastes and the moon had a smiling face

And the stars had not a hint of grace I'd be worthy of your love

I would be there when you're sad and lonely

I would not care if I sacrificed the only

Life I had, I'd give it up as if it were nothing

If I had what I haven't got, a second chance a second shot

I'd be something that I'm not, I'd be worthy of your love

I'd be there inside of every moment

I would know how every moment is a moment lost

Unless it's lived as if it's loved

If I could make up all the rules I would not carry out the work of fools

Or use deception and fear as tools and I'd be worthy of your love

I'd be worthy of your love
