Worthy Of Your Love

Graham Parker

If I had the slightest clue as to what you are and what's insid e you I would know exactly what to do and be worthy of your love If a flower bloomed in the frozen wastes and the moon had a smi ling face And the stars had not a hint of grace I'd be worthy of your lov е I would be there when you're sad and lonely I would not care if I sacrificed the only Life I had, I'd give it up as if it were nothing If I had what I haven't got, a second chance a second shot I'd be something that I'm not, I'd be worthy of your love I'd be there inside of every moment I would know how every moment is a moment lost Unless it's lived as if it's loved If I could make up all the rules I would not carry out the work of fools Or use deception and fear as tools and I'd be worthy of your lo ve I'd be worthy of your love
