No, I won't mind being in her arms all night,
Tangled up in our woollen slumber,
No, wait,

D.I.L.E.M.M.A

You don't even pay attention.

Her elegance bathes me in grace,
Perfectly ambient, it kills the ringing tinnitus.

Alone, through time zones to Asia running,
Lost to the scent of burning heroin.
No I won't mind her, not even if I try,
Spinning continents collide on a bedside globe light.

D.I.L.E.M.M.A

She can't even get arrested.

Her elegance, bathes me in grace,
Perfectly ambient, it kills the ringing tinnitus.
Her elegance, an infinite hum,
An air so ethereal, clearing my lungs, curing me.

You don't even pay attention. She can't even get arrested. Her elegance.
