

Some say that doubt's disappointing
But I say to question is to understand
And I won't swallow poison
Of faith placed in faith in experience

Sometimes I'm lost in a circle
The beast of human nature breathing in my face
And I won't pretend to ignore him
Emotion starts to sway but truth won't fade away

I believe, I believe, I believe, I believe
I can't pretend to, I can't pretend to I can't pretend to,
I can't pretend to understand everything
