Jonah

Grammatrain

I lost myself
Or rather images I had of
Me did tell how different
From truth they were
Chorus:
I think I'm drowning
And the ocean is raging
My smile is frowning
And my insides are praying
And I've swallowed
All my yesterdays,
Killed my past
To follow the way
I think I'm drowning and
The ocean screams to me
My name
I've fallen in
Or did I jump headfirst
Into this ocean
All I know is I cannot swim
I know that you'll dry all
My tears
I know you're beyond all
My fears
I know when I call out your name
My soul you save
