

She Don't Know

Grammatrain

Gabriel don't need love any more
Tries to hide herself behind her door
Her hatred is sacred
Gabriel don't need love any...
She don't know
Used to be alive inside her dreams
Her life is so much harder than it seemed
She doesn't know what's said
From voices in her head
Mother cries red tears for her
She don't know you no more
She don't even know herself
She don't know you no more
I didn't mean to push her
I did nothing to push her
Isn't love and blood supposed to make her stay
