

Call Yourself a Man

Grand Funk Railroad

Everybody's laughin' loud as it can be
But please don't point your finger, especially not at me
'Cause I'm not tryin' to be somebody, just do what I can
But you just keep on laughin', call yourself a man

I'm not lookin' for somebody to defend my case
I've been scorned by more than one, so stop this paper chase
And if you can't accept me just for what I am
Go ahead, reject me, call yourself a man

Tell me who you're foolin', is it not yourself?
Go ahead, be cool and I'll just be myself
And if you can't accept me just for what I am
Go ahead, reject me, call yourself a man
