

Greed of Man

Grand Funk Railroad

Tell me how you're doing in your eyes now
Well tell me what you see tell me why now
Do you see what's happening in your home land
Do you feel do you hear do you know man
Well i don't understand there's no rhyme or reason
I know the greed of man has no season
He never stops to think about the outcome
He don't look back to see the damage he's done
And if it's gonna be that you don't realize
Got you hypnotized must be mesmerized
He cut you down to size yeah yeah

Tell me that you're livin for the future
Tell me you're gonna do what ever suits you
Well i don't understand there's no rhyme or reason
I know the greed of man has no season
He never stops to think about the outcome
He don't look back to see the damage he's done
And if it's gonna be that you don't realize
Got you hypnotized must be mesmerized
He cut you down to size hell yeah yeah yeah

Well i don't understand there's no rhyme or reason
I know the greed of man has no season
He never stops to think about the outcome
He don't look back to see the damage he's done
And if it's gonna be that you don't realize
Got you hypnotized must be mesmerized
He cut you down to size hell

You must be hypnotized
Got you mesmerized
He cut you down to size

You must be hypnotized
Got you mesmerized
You must be you must be
You must be
You must be hypnotized
You must be you must be
You must be you must be
