

Wait for Me

Grand Funk Railroad

Now that your love is left behind
For your neighbor
That's why i remind you
Of the words
That he spoke for everyone
And those who believe them
Are anointed by the son
Oh yeah
All you got to do is believe
And go on to heaven
And there you'll be received
By the arms
Of a love you've never known
And nobody forced you
Because you did it on your own

And wait for me
Cause i'll meet you there
When these rags are gone
And my body's dead

Oh wait for me
And i'll meet you there
When these rags are gone
And my body's dead

Wait for me
And i'll meet you there
When these rags are gone
And my body's dead

Repeat
Repeat
Repeat
Repeat
