

Beyond Good and Evil

Grand Magus

You smile and claim purtiy of soul
I feel the need to rise above it all

A burning urge will guide me away
Your black and white will lose to the grey

As I walk - beyond good and evil

Your rules betray your need to make a stand
You fight the herd, still need security

There is no true or false in the wolrd
You might be right but I'm not wrong

As I walk - beyond good and evil
