

Triumph And Power

Grand Magus

Room the breath
Fill my need
Give me space
Plant the seed
Born alone
Slowly grown

There's a strength in my breed
Now my goal has been shown
As I march till dawn
For the triumph and the power
Spoils of war,
For the hunger and desire
A blood red throne
I ascend to the sky
By the dawn's early light
Fight for glory until death

Hail victory

Will of iron
Quiet soul
Empty words
Empty roles
Break their walls
Break their rules
Fiercely defiant
Damn the fools

Now my goal has been shown
As I march till dawn
For the triumph and the power
Spoils of war,
For the hunger and desire
A blood red throne
I ascend to the sky
By the dawn's early light
Fight for glory until death

Hail victory

At last there's a reason to believe
To rise from depths of misery
My heart clad in iron
My soul clad in steel
The triumph and power achieved

As I march till dawn
For the triumph and the power
Spoils of war,
For the hunger and desire
A blood red throne
By the dawn's early light
Fight for glory until death

For the triumph and the power

Spoils of war,
For the hunger and desire
A blood red throne
By the dawn's early light

Hail victory
