

We went to Reno
When I was a kid
We saw a lion
With closed eyelids
It was an MGM
It was an MGM
It was ridiculous
We felt so sorry for him
It was an MGM
It was an MGM
My dad got teary-eyed in front of his new girlfriend
We grabbed the lion
The place went nuts
We took him up the elevator till we were high enough
It was an MGM
It was an MGM
It was ridiculous
We felt so sorry for him
It was an MGM
It was an MGM
It was the grandest show we threw him off the patio
And to the fog suspended in the air
It makes it so you can't see shit and it will frost your hair
It was an MGM
It was an MGM
It was ridiculous
We felt so sorry for him
It was an MGM
It was an MGM
His eyes were not open
If he survived the fall my dad would have killed him
If he survived the fall my dad would have killed him
If he survived the fall my dad would have killed him
If he survived the fall my dad would have killed him
If he survived the fall my dad would have killed him
If he survived the fall my dad would have killed him
If he survived the fall my dad would have killed him
If he survived the fall my dad would have killed him
