

This Is How It Always Starts

Grandaddy

This is how it always starts
All order falls apart
Okay, so who put this key in the mix?

Things were stable yesterday
But now they're blown away
Oh, shit, I can't let them see me like this

Nothing sweet, nothing nice
Nothing kiss, only fights
Nothing clear, nothing bright
Nothing I'll feel tonight

Nothing great, nothing good
Nothing is as it should
Nothing rad, nothing right
Nothing I'll feel tonight

This is how it always starts
Dumb choices from the heart
Oh, shit, I can't let them see me like this

Nothing sweet, nothing nice
Nothing kiss, only fights
Nothing clear, nothing bright
Nothing I'll feel tonight

Nothing great, nothing good
Nothing is as it should
Nothing rad, nothing right
Nothing I'll feel tonight
