This Is How It Always Starts

Grandaddy

This is how it always starts All order falls apart Okay, so who put this key in the mix?

Things were stable yesterday But now they're blown away Oh, shit, I can't let them see me like this

This is how it always starts Dumb choices from the heart Oh, shit, I can't let them see me like this
