From the Heart of Me

Grateful Dead

Voices slide down off the mountain, sunlight turning red Falls on the earth and it spreads Even the families lower their heads as they ride

Age old faces of the mountains looming naturally I wonder if they're looking at me, their monumental eyes I can feel

In the glow of the twilight the thought of home Reminds me now I'm reaching out to you Anything I can do to be safe and warm in your arms

All I have from the heart of you

I'd meet you anywhere in the country or anywhere on the sea All over the world it could be I would follow you with the hear t of me

Remembering you hold me tight in tomorrow morning's light I wil l fine you

When I awoke the stars were out and shining, shining for you an \mbox{d} me

All I ever wanna be is save and warm in your arms All I have, from the heart of me
