

To My Redeemer

Grave Declaration

Suppose You're the one who believes
I see it as You are the One
My cry reaches for Your attention
Injustice needs to be undone

I will claim
Forgiveness to be mine
And overcome
By Your timeless, forever valid promises

You've been flying far
Bringing secrets to forgotten times
Endlessly far
Like a distance unmeasurable

I will claim...

For just as high
As the heavens are above the earth
that's how enormous
Your mercy is shown to those who fear You

The restless story, has yet been untold
Sing with me, share the unknown

Flames rise next to my soul
And burn, they scar me with passion
Fly, I escape from the hell
From the sweet drowning, in the hot sea deep

Worthy are You who was nailed to a tree
With the understanding of who own revenge
As You left behind all fury and hate
To become the atonement for all of our sins

All of man arise
Hail our Saviour Christ
Destined for such a gruesome death
For our souls to find peace

Your grace
And your love so strong
Turn me to "wondering unsolved"
I give up on understanding your ways
As I fall in your love
