Sacred hall, eternal might Endless fame, see the golden light Son of the dark, godess of youth Sacrifice her and pay the price

Forever you'll be guilty
Forever you'll be free
Forever you'll be strong
Forever you will live in peace

But in the light of day, pay us penance Instead of the godess, we'll have the ring Brother take heed, don't be greedy The gold, the treasure is mine forever

I have slain my brother Cause we hate each other I have changed my face To the dragon's race

Giants Giants Giants

Forever you'll be guilty
Forever you'll be free
Forever you'll be strong
Forever you will live in peace
