The Reaper

Grave Digger

Welcome to the Evil's nightmare See the demons dancing round waiting for the reaper's rising Looking out for Satan's crowd

The grave is open, a digger's smile please welcome the dead

Look Behind You; He Stands Behind You The Reaper Shall Return Look Reside You; Walks beside You The Reaper has Returned

Tonight the Reaper's party is open Get entrance, get the trance Forget about the words of warning Forget about the smell of death

The raft of death now leaves the landing Waters wipe out space and time Black man gives a skinless smile Cold greetings reach your mind
