

8th Dominion

Grave

Far from the promised land
Where the weak reside
My realm, my place of peace
Beneath the mountains eternity

The 8th Dominion
Bestowed upon me
Controlled salvation
Regeneration time now

Ruled by darkness I have been
And will always be
Satan watched every step
Through hollow eyes

Following the traces of the dead
To grow my strength
Searching for the purest minds
Regeneration time

Far away from the promised land
Where the worlds collide
Cold and hollow, vast and black
My eternity
A thousand years and a thousand more
Watching silently
Awaiting my destined path
Set my kingdom free

Following the traces of the dead
To grow my strength
Searching for the purest minds
Regeneration time

The 8th Dominion
Bestowed upon me
Controlled salvation
Regeneration time now

Silent moans as my body fails
Claws and horns let the pain in
Slowly twisting by the shedding of skin
Demon speech now controls my tongue

Flames below me, flames inside
Far away from where worlds collide
Satan grins with burning eyes
