Below

Grave

From the darkest depths of hell Spawn of evil is set free

Domination since the dawn of time Soulhunter will prevail again

The only angels you'll ever see Will be the dark ones - Below

Trying to please the holy one See what that has brought you to Live by the book, live by the lies The purest souls is what we crave

Step into the flames
You are our guest for eternity

No use to look to the skies Clench your hands one last time

Domination for eternity Soulhunter has prevailed again
