Christi(ns)anity

Living in a constant dream of a place you've never seen Preaching all those feeble lies of a life in paradise Your faith is just insanity too scared to face reality Stupid enough to believe all this christinsanity

You make me sick Feeble son

I'll laugh at you when you die because you won't get a better l ife Dreaming of your paradise can't you see it's only lies Your end is coming closer now another day you'll never see Blind you are and dead you'll be your faith is just christinsan ity

You make me laugh Chosen one

I laugh right upon your face I laugh at your religious faith I laugh at you when you cry I laugh at the crucified Living in a constant dream of a place you'll never see Preaching all those feeble lies of a life in paradise Your end is coming closer now another day you'll never see
