

Dark Signs

Grave

Constant fear of what resides in my weak mind
Sleeping or awake, all the same
Ravenous companion in my head so indiscreet
My primal half challenges me to kill

Silent deliberation to explain my innocence
Questions about the blood
Screams of fear as I raise my blade and smile
In my head one repeating word

My soul impaired
Controlled enslaved

Dark signs follow me and my friend
Scarred life and death, lovely

Screams of fear as I raise my blade and smile
In my head one repeating word
Ravenous companion in my heart, mind and soul
My better half appears to kill

My soul impaired
Controlled enslaved
