Reborn

Grave

Empty eyes following your steps Solely assigned to taste your Flesh Far beyond any hesitation Soon you will meet the Undead

And he stands before you in all his pride Once a human, brought Immortal life For the price of eartlhy being He was blessed with Killing spree

The Blood before your eyes clouds your perception Is this for real or just a dream?
As you feel the claws Ripping through your bone
One word echoes inside your head

Blood

Blood For Master Blood For My Soul

Now that I have joined the Undead I've learned the Pleasures of the Flesh For the price of earthly being I roam the night Immortalized

Now I stand before you in all my pride Once a human brought Immortal life And to bring you into our world I command the draining of your Blood
